

LEWIS & CLARK IN COLUMBIA RIVER COUNTRY

This detailed map of the mouth and north shore of the Columbia River was originally drawn by William Clark, 1805. The exact location of the Lewis and Clark Expedition Pacific Ocean camp (Nov. 16-25, 1805) is indicated by three divergent compass readings.

Washington State Historical Society Collection.