

LEWIS & CLARK IN COLUMBIA RIVER COUNTRY

EXHIBIT 1: GRINDER'S STAND

Grinder's stand may have looked something like this—two rather small rooms with a breezeway between. Sometimes a small kitchen or store room was attached to the back. This design was typical for that time and location. The chimneys would have been made of field stones.