

STUDENT GRAPHIC ORGANIZER CLOTHING THAT TALKS

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

Part I. Your Photo
 (If you didn't bring one, describe what you are wearing today.)

Make a list of all of the clothing that you are wearing in the photo.	Make a list of all the jewelry or "accessories" that you are wearing (e.g. belt, bag, etc.)
Write a paragraph answering: why are you wearing that particular outfit or combination of clothing? Was it to go somewhere in particular or do something? (school, sports, party, trip, etc.)	How would you dress differently for a photo that was taken to give to a friend as a gift? ...for a photo that was taken to give to a grandparent?
How would you dress differently for a photo that was taken to attach to a job application?	How would you dress differently if you were to have your photo taken with your favorite famous person?

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

Part II. Uniform

Think of a relative, friend, neighbor or movie character who wears a uniform. This could be a work uniform, a military uniform, or a school uniform. List what that person wears when they are in uniform. Be specific.

Why do you think people wear uniforms?

This man is modeling a railroad conductor's uniform for the Northern Pacific Railway Company. This picture was taken in 1913.

Washington State Historical Society Collections.

Choose one type of uniform that you have seen. What do you think of when you see it? What does the uniform "say" to you?

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

Part III. Isaac Stevens

How can historic photos help us to understand the past?

Write a paragraph describing Isaac Stevens in his military uniform. Try to use the vocabulary words that you have learned.

Write a paragraph describing the portrait of Isaac Stevens wearing his fur hat.

Write a paragraph describing Isaac Stevens in his civilian clothing.

If Stevens had to choose one of these images to hang in his office as Territorial Governor, which one do you think he would choose? Why?